

MIRIAM SLAGER

Artist Statement

In a broad sense, my artwork explores the ways in which we visually, physically and intellectually engage with the spaces around us. I am specifically interested in the details found in the peripheries and interstices that suggest how one should engage with a space, and in turn what these details reveal about the specific values that are held by the creators and users of the space.